

PreSchool Partners Student Receives 25 Millionth Book From Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Dolly Parton presented PreSchool Partners student, Kumar Stewart, with the 25 millionth book from her Imagination Library. The Junior League of Birmingham sponsors Jefferson County's Imagination Library in which Kumar is a registered participant. Kumar and his family travelled to Dollywood for the presentation. Parton gave Kumar a copy of her new book, I Am a Rainbow, and sang him a song she had written especially for him.

Jenna Bush Hager interviewed Kumar and his parents, Shalisha and Ray Stewart, for the Today Show.

